Rules and Regulations

Entries accepted for Cock, Hen, Cockerel, and Pullet ONLY. No trio entries accepted. No late entries accepted, and NO substitutions or changes will be allowed. Unless listed in this premium book, no other entries will be accepted.

All entries must be on the grounds by 12 Noon Monday of fair week, and will be released Sunday of fair week, after 3 p.m.

The greatest possible care will be taken of all exhibits, but the management will not be responsible for any accident, mistake, loss or damage that occurs. The specimen being entered is at the sole risk of the owner. Competent individuals will be in charge of the exhibition, and the management will do all in its power for the safety and protection of all exhibits.

Feed and fresh water will be supplied free of charge. Exhibition coops will be furnished. In case of limited number of cages available, birds will be double-cooped.

The judge will be governed by the latest American Standard of Perfection, and his decision will be final. An unworthy specimen will not be given a prize even though there is no competition. Birds showing evidence of sickness will not be allowed in the show. The management reserves the right to reject any entry. Pullorum testing is required in N.Y. State. Certificate must be current and up to date. Waterfowl must be banded.

Sale coops will be rented to exhibitors ONLY at $3.00 each, and maximum 3 birds to a coop. Contact the superintendent at the show to arrange for cooping.

Please complete the entry form properly, showing the correct Class and Section number. If you do not have enough room, attach additional sheets of paper.

Note: 2 Birds per class.
